No Title

No subtitle
... for the endpoint at $x = \pi$ one could use the variable $z = \pi + (x - \pi)/N$. Then as $N$ gets larger $f_N(z)$ approaches a constant form, called a scaling function. Indeed this scaling function does get larger than $2\pi$. 